DIRECTIONS

For those with a Good sense of direction:

North of Carondelet.

South of Forsyth.

On the East side of Bemiston.

Next to Café Napoli.

- You can't miss us. We're the only English Tudor style looking place on the street. And in Clayton.

For those with an Okay sense of direction:

From Hanley and Forsyth, West on Forsyth, South
on Bemiston. Voila.

From Brentwood and
Forsyth: East on Forsyth to South on Bemiston. Again, voila.

From the West: 40/64 east to Brentwood Blvd north to Forsyth east to Bemiston south. 40 feet on left et voila.

From the East: 40/64 west to Hanley north to Carondelet west to Bemiston north. 1/2 block on right, et voila.

You can't miss us. We're the only English Tudor style looking place on the street. And in Clayton.

For Clayton old-timers: We're . . . (kind of) across from the Bank of America at Forsyth and Bemiston. If you're heading west through the alley that (used to) cut from Hanley Rd. through the Library Limited (or Vandervoort's, if you're old-school Clayton) and behind the old Broadcast Center (wasn't it fun to stare at the D.J.s in–training through the front windows?), continue to Bemiston (at the old Arby's) and make a right – we're on the right 3 doors down, north of where Teutenbergs Cafeteria used to be.

Parking: Ample meter spaces on street. Public lot at Bemiston and Carondelet. Many like to walk here!
