

Families

Your Dad took you here. You take your kids here. You get older and reciprocate by taking your Dad. It's a celebrated tradition – Families and the Fatted Calf. Kids are always welcome – we've got booster seats, high chairs and a kids menu, plus round tables that are very family-friendly. Even mean old cusses like your Uncle Mortimer can come, but please, leave those false teeth in.